

John Deere 120R Loader Recall Serial Number List

This recall involves certain 120R John Deere loaders that sold from May 2017 through September 2017 with the model number printed on the side of the loader. The serial number is located on the back side of the loader. Below is a list of loader and tractor serial numbers that may be affected by this recall. If your loader serial number is included in this list, then the recall applies. If your loader PIN is not listed, check the list of tractor serial numbers that may have had this loader included in this recall. If your loader or tractor's serial number is on the list, contact your John Deere dealer for more information.
